Weekly English Tasks
This week's spellings:	Test how well you have been practicing your spellings over the past few weeks with a game of spooky spellings! http://www.ictgames.com/mobilePage/spookySpellings/index.html
This week's writing:	You are a part of living history! One day, children in the future will learn about this as a topic in history lessons! Over the next few weeks, your challenge is to create a time capsule of your time at home. You could even bury it in your garden for someone to discover! You could include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A poster telling everyone all about you. - A diary of a typical day during this time that shares how you feel. - Interviews with members of your family, those with you and those who are missing you. - Photographs or drawings of things you have been doing. - Photographs or drawings from your daily walk showing what your home town is like now. - Handprints of everyone who is in your house. When you have collected all your work decorate or build a container to save everything in.

E-Safety Awareness

It is likely you are using technology much more as a result of the lockdown and with that in mind it may be worth taking a moment to visit the follow websites.
<http://www.internetmatters.org/>

<https://www.saferinternet.org.uk/advice-centre/parents-and-carers>

Both sites can help to make the best use of tech during these challenging times.

Time for some fun - music!

Move it Monday	Think of some alternative lyrics and actions to sing and perform along to the song (nod head, twitch nose, knock knees etc.) How about more expressions and faces to pull at the end too? Send your ideas over on twitter or Dojos.	Song: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Uv3JjtQzvUc&feature=emb_title
Together on Tuesday	When you are separated from your friends and family, for whatever reason, it is just as important to show people that you care. Think of ways that you can do this, such as putting pictures up in the window for passers-by to see, keeping in touch by sending photos and messages to friends and family, or sharing artwork you have created or a new fact you have learnt.	Song: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iGUABWgeA1Q&feature=emb_title
Wellbeing Wednesday	Did you know? The world record for eating broccoli is nearly ½kg in 92 seconds, held by Tom ‘Broccoli’ Landers!	Song: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qcXi7FI2T_o&feature=emb_title
Thinking Thursday	Can you find out the different sizes and colours of the planets and then cut out eight circles, decorate/colour them accordingly and label each with its name? Can you put them in the correct order from memory after singing the song?	Song: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zKuAGmgWzHk&feature=emb_title
